Swoop Over Manila From A New Direction; Drop Bombs, Speed Away

ATTACK TWO FIELDS

In Recent Engagement in N. Luzon, Americans and Philipinos Thrash Enemy

MANILA, L.-C. 18—(INS)—Japanese air raiders, swooping in over Manila from a new direction, today launched a new bombing raid on the Philippine capital but official quarters said that only "slight" damage resulted.

The Nipponese war craft dropped their cargoes and sped away soon after announcement was made of a recent engagement in northern Luzon in which American and Filipino troops soundly thrashed a Japanese patrol and sent it fleeing.

The Japanese planes came in from the west and southwest, instead of the usual northeasterly route, and loosed their bomb racks over Nichols and Zablan Fields, previous targets of Japanese attacks.

LATEST WAR BULLETINS*Japanese Dispersing

London—Artillery batteries at the beleaguered British crown colony of Hong Kong are successfully dispersing Japanese attackers, British military authorities declared today.

Describing the battle, military authorities said—"Hong Kong continues to hold out resolutely despite extremely severe artillery and aerial bombardment. British artillery is replying successfully and is dispersing enemy troops and artillery concentrations on the Kowloon shore."

It was admitted, however, that Penang, important island port off the Malayan coast, must be regarded as seriously endangered because of the Japanese occupation of the Malayan mainland opposite.

3,200 Germans Killed

Moscow—On one sector of the southern front, 3,200 Germans have been killed in the last few days and a vast amount of booty captured, a supplementary war bulletin said today.

Another war bulletin said that Russian forces captured 70 villages on the southwestern sector of the front in a single day.

Chinese Increase Pressure On Railway Towns

Chungking, China—Chinese troops have intensified their pressure on Japanese-held railway towns near the Kowloon border area of Hong Kong, beleaguered British Far East outpost, the official Chinese news agency said today.

The agency said the Chinese also are hitting at the Japs at a point 31 miles north of Canton and in the region of Swatow.

Still later advices said that British troops are holding out against large forces of Japanese on the heights of Kowloon.

Referring to the superior artillery batteries of Hong Kong, a Chinese spokesman said the British crown colony will be able to hold off any concerted Japanese assault on the base until Chinese armies can come to its assistance.

Australians and Dutch at Timor

London—Over-riding objections of local Portuguese authorities, Australian and Dutch forces today took charge of the strategic Portuguese colony of Timor in the south Pacific.

A British statement frankly indicated the move was to prevent any Japanese incursion against Timor, which is situated within aerial striking distance of Australia and many parts of the Netherlands East Indies.

An official Dutch statement said local Portuguese authorities objected on grounds that the occupation was a breach of Portuguese neutrality.

Attack Japanese Warships and Transports

Batavia—Netherlands East Indies army bombers heavily attacked a Japanese concentration of warships and transports off Miri, Sarawak, where an expeditionary force has been landed, it was learned today.

At the same time, it was established that the Nipponese warship hit directly and set afire by a Netherlands flying boat yesterday was a cruiser and not a destroyer as first reported.

U. S. To Tighten Citizenship Laws

Washington—Congress moved today to tighten citizenship laws in order to get control over an estimated 50,000 naturalized Germans and Italians who are still loyal to their former Axis governments.

The move came as the House convened to consider a sweeping bill by Rep. Dickstein, D. N. Y., permitting the Attorney General to institute citizenship cancellation proceedings against any naturalized American "whose conduct establishes his political allegiance to a foreign state."

The measure was brought up as leaders drove to complete all immediately essential war legislation by the end of the week so that members can get at least a short Christmas vacation.

DOYLESTOWN ENDS YEAR WITH BALANCE

Report Shows Only $332.01 Is Outstanding In Delinquent Water Rents

NO NOTES IN BANK

DOYLESTOWN, Dec. 18—This borough, for the second consecutive year, ends the year with a very substantial balance in the treasury, no notes in bank and all outstanding bills paid.

That was the gratifying report of Borough Treasurer Thomas Diver given to Doylestown Council. Another pleasing feature of the financial status is the fact that only $332.01 is outstanding in delinquent water rents and about $400 in delinquent sewer rents.

Bills paid amounted to $5399.70, leaving a balance on hand at the close of the business year amounting to $6248. The answer to the efficient manner in which the borough has operated is "very few bills receivable." Bonds outstanding amount to $110,500.

The canvass of the Farm Defense Program which has been carried on by the community committees of the Bucks County Agricultural Conservation Association is about completed and gives some interesting figures.

Some of the totals for Bucks County as reported by Russell C. Edwards, chairman of the County Committee and the U. S. D. A. defense board shows a production in 1941 of 93,129,289 lbs. of milk from 14,951 cows on 1,782 farms, an intended production in 1942 of 99,458,696 lbs. of milk from 16,155 cows on 1,787 farms; also a production in 1941 of 4,704,497 dozens of eggs on 1,806 farms and an intended 1942 production of 5,674 dozens eggs from 1,857 farms.

This is substantially the increase in production of milk and eggs that is estimated by the Department of Agriculture to be needed. The report also shows some increase intended in the acreage to be planted in corn and soybeans for grain. The acreage of commercial vegetables for market and processing will be slightly increased depending on the labor available.

The days are getting fewer and fewer—Christmas shoppers, keep on the job. Just one week remains until the 25th.

Always anxious to give suggestions for men's gifts—knowing that men are most difficult to find items for—I did some shopping at Gallagher & Gallagher's, Mill and Cedar street, today. And most of my time was spent looking at the Adam hats, and the cute little hat boxes for gift-giving. Each miniature hat box contains a gift certificate for a hat. What man would turn that gift down?

Evacuation trials for air-raid alarms are being conducted today in the public schools of Bristol, the school officials in charge, under direction of superintendent Warren P. Snyder, endeavoring to determine the length of time required for such evacuation, and also to accustom the pupils to preparation for same.

By such evacuation trials it is hoped that students will be acquainted with the schools' special raid alarm, that they will be able to quickly don clothing, with the older students aiding the young ones, and all be out of the structures within a very few minutes.

This will be merely an evacuation from the buildings, and there will be no dispersion drills, with pupils sent to their homes, until local school officials are advised from the U. S. Army headquarters, states Mr. Snyder.

All buildings will be notified by telephone relay alarms, just as will occur in the event of a real raid.

The following telegram was sent today to President Roosevelt, Governor James and Mayor Samuel of Philadelphia by Judge Eugene V. Alessandrini, grand venerable of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania of the Order Sons of Italy in America:

"During the history of our Country, America has fought for political independence, for the preservation of the Union, for the sacred rights of freedom and democracy.

"Once again war has been forced upon us by brutal forces organized for the destruction of principles of justice and decency. Our territory has been invaded and American blood has been shed. The treacherous attack has found the United States of America united, unafraid, prepared to strike back—on land, on sea and in the air.

"Our faith in ultimate victory is certain. Our trust in the leadership of the American people is absolute.

"America will win!

"For this great cause, for the triumph of the American Flag, for our sacred ideals of justice and freedom, the Order Sons of Italy in America is ready and willing, as in 1917, to perform its full duty, and to this end dedicates all its resources and its organization of effective services.

"Our only thought is for America. For the victory of our armed forces we mobilize our entire Order. Standing at attention we await the command of our President, our Governor and the other authorities of our Commonwealth."

HITLER'S NEXT MOVE

Hitler, obviously, is up to no good. His high command has announced that there will be no further attempts to capture Moscow until spring. In view of the catastrophic nature of the Nazi retreat in Russia, this is probably an understatement. But there is suspicion in Washington and abroad that Hitler is already planning new devilry.

Despite the gigantic defeat currently being administered to the Nazis by the Soviet, Hitler still has troops, tanks and guns which will have to be used elsewhere because it is the unfortunate aspect of totalitarianism to be under the continual necessity of providing its subjects with a succession of military victories. And at the present moment Hitler is in dire need of a sensational victory or, failing that, at least some maneuver to take the German mind off the failure in Russia and America's entry into the war.

Hitler, therefore, many observers believe "has something up his sleeve." What is it? A push through Spain, by-passing Gibraltar, to French North and West Africa? A push through Turkey to realize one of his ultimate goals and seizure of the Suez Canal, now more vital than ever to Britain? An attack on Iceland? Or is he plotting the boldest stroke of his career—invasion of the British Isles?

The last possibility can not be dismissed as a nightmare. Russia reports that she is again in command of the air, a hint that the German air force has been withdrawn. Continental sources say that the Nazis are withdrawing regiments, battalions and even whole divisions from the Russian front. These sources also intimate that Hitler has massed a fleet of 100,000 gliders for the invasion attempt.

All this, of course, may be just what Hitler wants his enemies to believe. But it is probably not giving him too much credit to say that he may have planned the present war in the Pacific as a gigantic diversion by which he hopes to catch his chief enemy, England, off guard.

RADIO HYSTERIA

Neville Miller, president of the National Association of Broadcasters, performed a meritorious service for his country when he advised radio stations to use "unusually careful editorial judgment" in selecting war news. It is equally important, he added, that announcers and newscasters report war news "calmly, slowly and deliberately so as to avoid horror, suspense and undue excitement."

The "beat" has been on the radio stations since the start of the war in the Pacific. Apparently they have tried to give their listeners all the news of the war as rapidly and as accurately as possible. But at times conjecture and fragmentary reports have been substituted for genuine news. And even a "vague" report tends to become clothed with the mantle of unintentional authenticity when presented by the human voice.

In its eagerness to serve the public, radio has also debased the value of important news by intermittent repetition of conjectural news. When every scrap of news is honored by having a program interrupted in its favor, the listener becomes confused.

Mr. Miller's advice and the inherent good sense of the directors of individual stations and networks should remedy the situation before it becomes serious.

Serve Novel Coffolate For Informal Refreshments

When evenings are long, we like to ask the neighbors in for a friendly game and a hospitable bite to eat. Sandwiches shaped with cookie cutters into spades, hearts, diamonds and clubs have festive eye appeal that's easily achieved and you can count on a toothsome, moist filling without soggy if you thicken it with quick-cooking tapioca. A novel coffolate brew made with decaffeinated coffee and cocoa makes a tasty thirst quencher that everyone can sip through the evening without losing sleep later on. Your guests will enjoy the surprise of cinnamon sticks served as stirrers for their coffolate and you can give it an added fillip by folding a tiny bit of cinnamon or nutmeg into the whipped cream.

Party Coffolate

1 cup strong decaffeinated coffee
2 squares unsweetened chocolate
3 tablespoons sugar
Dash of salt
3 cups milk

Make decaffeinated coffee extra strength using 1½ tablespoons for each cup, ½ pint water. Add chocolate to coffee in top of double boiler and place over low flame, stirring until chocolate is melted and blended. Add sugar and salt, and boil 4 minutes, stirring constantly. Place over boiling water. Add milk gradually, stirring constantly; then heat. When hot, beat with rotary egg beater until frothy. Serve hot. Top with whipped cream, if desired. Serves four.

Nippy Cheese Sandwich Filling

2 cups strained canned tomatoes (juice and pulp)
2 tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca
¼ teaspoon pepper
¼ teaspoon dry mustard
2½ cups (½ pound) grated American cheese
1½ cups (¼ pound) ground dried beef
¼ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
Combine tomatoes, quick-cooking tapioca, pepper, and mustard in saucepan and mix well. Bring mixture quickly to a full boil over direct heat, stirring constantly. Add cheese gradually and stir until melted. Remove from fire. Add dried beef and Worcestershire sauce and blend. Cool. Makes 2½ cups filling.

powders, soaps, perfumes, etc., have "captured" the women, until today sales persons tell me they sell as much of this particular odor for the women as for the men. United Cut Rate Drug Store, at 231 Mill street, sells "Old Spice," with a wide selection. And in their collection by Yardley, is to be had Lotus, the new cologne by that manufacturer, which is becoming a best seller.

Urging all to "look your best for the holidays," Natale, the custom tailor at 923 Wood street, suggests that garments be taken to his shop for dry cleaning. This will take one more task from the busy shopper's shoulders in these days just before Christmas. If there are a few spots you planned to attempt removing yourself, why not save time for Christmas activities? Take the garment to Natale. It is my guarantee you will be more than pleased with results.

speedy peace by the 1500 Grangers attending the convention.

Mr. Martin was congratulated upon his birthday anniversary, and had charge of the brief business session, during which two applications for membership were received. Resolutions upon the recent death of a member were adopted, and some repairs to the Grange property were ordered made.

The subject of the program was Christmas.

During a meeting of the Bucks County Chapter for Infantile Paralysis, at the home of Mrs. James Shellenberger, Doylestown, Monday evening, it was decided not to hold the Presidential Ball this year. The chapter took this action because of the current war conditions.

Efforts will be made, however, to raise funds, and this will be done in the schools and by placing boxes in public places throughout the community.

Sellersville defense workers took another step toward making the community organization one that will be permanent for the duration of the war as they staged a huge rally in fire hall, here.

Approximately 300 persons jammed all available space in the auditorium to hear speakers explain how the town can best be defended in the event of an emergency.

Evacuation Trials For Air Raids Are Held For Students

the organization for such drills was gotten well underway. Bulletins have been issued to school employees, and others sent to the homes of the children. In the latter, the parents are asked if there is a grown person usually at home during school hours, or if not to what nearby house the children are instructed to go. The approximate time necessary for the various children to walk to their homes is also being asked.

In the event of raids it is planned to send the pupils home in groups in care of teachers assisted by older pupils at the first report of raids, provided the children live sufficiently near the schools, in instances where pupils live at the far ends of the borough, in Bristol Township or in Tullytown, the plan is to evacuate them to homes in the neighborhoods of the schools. Thus none will be required to walk long distances in danger in the event of a real alarm.

"All buildings will be practically self-sufficient to care for any emergency up to the time of the evacuation," stated Mr. Snyder today. Older pupils in the high school will aid in some instances in protecting from fire, aiding in health measures, maintenance, policing, etc.

Teachers will be given courses in first aid, this being outlined now by the girls' and boys' physical education instructors, with Red Cross supervision. Thus, if buildings near the schools are damaged, and persons injured, the public will know that first aid can be secured at the various school buildings of the borough. But in this instance it is pointed out by the school superintendent that the school officials would co-operate with whatever plan is outlined in the borough.

Arrangements have also been made for building maintenance, with definite individuals already assigned to care for gas, water and heating systems. Should such alarm be received at night someone will report to building to care for such. A check-up will be made on each building to ascertain that someone is on duty.

Parents have been requested that in event of a raid not to communicate with the schools under any circumstances, either by telephone, or to attempt to reach the school afoot or by car. "Keep the telephone lines open" is the admonition.

At schools the younger pupils will be aided in getting coats and hats on, but leggings will not be put on the tots. Such will be given time to carry in view of the length of time required to put such garments on. It is suggested rather that parents see that children are dressed in warm stockings.

Physically handicapped children will be kept near the school, together with the pupils from out-of-town.

Practice drills are planned in order to accustom the children with the new procedure.

It is planned to have emergency police or other responsible individuals care for fire protection, policing of the schools, etc., in school buildings where there are no older students to aid in this phase.

Only a girl born into an odd family, could result in this heroine. And Gabrielle's family was odd, for her mother was an actress and Simon married her out of love and compassion. After Mercy died, Simon's mind went and Gabrielle's family were Simon and the dour sister, Jenevra. Accordingly she cultivated surface happiness to an abnormal point, completely avoiding introspection of either herself or Ricky. When Ricky wanted to marry at once because of his promotion, he upset Gabrielle so that she broke with him temporarily. Her friendship with too introspective, moody Eugene Matthews, proved almost fatal when Eugene turned petty thief, but before the last page and Easter morning everyone's happiness is neatly insured. This is light fiction with more meatiness than is generally found and there is fine talent for realistic characterization.

PRESCRIPTION FOR MURDER by Hannah Lees (Random House, $2.00), is a diverting, top-notch mystery, certain to take one's mind off present day troubles. Miss Lees is well known for her Saturday Evening Post Hard Boiled Harvey series, and the book, WOMEN WILL BE DOCTORS. This is more about Cyrus (Hard Boiled) Harvey and more about women and doctors behind hospital doors.

"Probably she had been a pretty toothsome morsel in her day, if you liked them feline and man-eating," but Cyrus thought beetle-faced Caroline Faine (diabetes or no) was getting more attention than needed. That was until she unaccountably died, then Hard Boiled gave her the proper attention plus, because it seemed to him there was something quite fishy about the oddly hushed collapse of Directress of Nurses, Cyrus' attention to the case was coolly welcomed, but at least the little Social Service Worker, fair-haired, naive Sally Pepper had faith in him and together they set about to unearth details that led back through a maze of past romance, hate, frustration and resignation. But though their lives were endangered, Cyrus and Sally carried on, because they were in love and believed in each other; and determined to untangle each perplexing thread. The author undeniably knows her hospitals and handles her story so that suspense and skill combine in a smooth, exciting result.

All American Cheeses Provide Thrifty Treats

You've been missing out on some thrifty epicurean treats if you've been limiting your use of dessert cheeses to bread and cracker alliances. Did you know, for instance, that a little Blue cheese or Blue American-made equivalent—the tasty Roquefort—spread on chops or fish five minutes before they have done their time on the broiler gives them delectable flavor? You probably do know the favorite Continental trick of crumbling a little Blue cheese in salad dressing. But Camembert, Brie and Liederkranz cheese provide equally piquant flavor as basic salad ingredients. Liederkranz cheese combines well with shrimps or corned beef in salad or sandwich ensembles. Camembert and Brie are delicious as companions to sliced apples and celery in a salad.

All of these famous dessert cheeses are entirely practical for budget treats, in spite of war conditions. Liederkranz cheese was invented in America nearly half a century ago and Camembert, Brie, Swiss and Baby Gouda have been made successfully for many years. Vanished Roquefort now is replaced by tasty Blue cheese with a made-in-America label. It's an aid to your health menus to feature these famous cheeses for dessert, as well as for sandwiches and snacks, because they all have the same important vitamins and minerals that milk contains and are a thrifty source of nourishment. And be sure to investigate the cocktail cheese spreads packed in glasses.

Liederkranz Cheese and Onion Spread
Spread slices of rye or pumpernickel with butter and then with Liederkranz cheese. Cover with sliced marinated Bermuda onion. To marinate onion, add salt, pepper and equal quantities of oil and vinegar to sliced onion and let stand 20 minutes. Garnish with stuffed olives.

That Sunday Night Supper

Have a pick-up supper on Sunday night if you so desire, but make it a "balanced" meal anyway. It will be more pleasing to the family—and also more beneficial.

Here is a suggested menu, with a recipe for the only dish you may be unfamiliar with—and an extra recipe which you may substitute on another occasion. The cooked, dried Lima beans culled for, may be procured in cans—anywhere. You'll find this menu an excellent one to keep on file for more than occasional use!

Vegetable Hash
1 cup cooked, dried Limas
2 cupfuls cooked potatoes
1 cupful cooked carrots, diced
4 tablespoons fat
2 onions, chopped fine
½ teaspoon pepper
½ teaspoon salt

Mix all ingredients. Heat fat in a heavy frying pan; add vegetables and spread evenly. Cover and cook over a low fire until brown on the bottom. Fold like an omelet and serve at once.

Limas Creole
2 cups cooked, dried Limas
3 slices bacon
2 medium onions, sliced
1 green pepper, shredded
1 cup milk

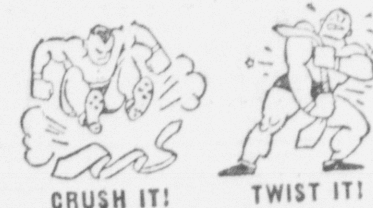

Fry bacon, remove from pan, add onions and green pepper. Cook until tender. Place a layer of Limas in a buttered casserole, add a layer of bacon, broken in pieces, then a layer of onion and pepper mixture. Sprinkle lightly with salt. Repeat. Pour over milk and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) about 20 minutes.

Organize Air-Raid Protection For The Borough of Bristol

Fifth ward, Lester D. Thorne. Sixth ward, Percy G. Ford.

A large number of volunteers is necessary, and those willing to offer their services are requested to notify the district wardens immediately. Both men and women are asked to volunteer their services. The requirements call for at least one air raid warden to every 50 families. Consequently it will be realized that a large number is necessary for Bristol.

Instructions will be given later on as the organization is completed.

A meeting of Civilian Defense recruits was held in the Municipal Building, here, last night, at which instructions were given, and various phases of civilian defense discussed. Those attending the meeting were the district emergency police chiefs, air wardens, deputy air wardens, and representatives from various industries in this area who have been selected as "plant protectors."

The meeting was addressed by

SUNDAY DINNER Suggestions

WITH the Christmas holiday spirit already in the air, one might make Sunday dinner an even more special occasion than usual this week, taking advantage of the many low-priced vegetables in the market and the plentiful supply of citrus fruits.

Particularly good buys in meat this week are pot roasts, steaks, legs of lamb, pork chops and loins, and bacon and sausage.

That trio of winter favorites—apples, oranges and grapefruit are still the best buys. If your menu doesn't include one of them as a dessert, try salads and fruit cups to give your family the healthful vitamins these fruits possess.

String beans, cabbage, celery, radishes, lettuce, mushrooms, onions, squash, spinach, tomatoes and rutabagas are starred items. It's a wide choice for easy menu-planning.

Low prices show important decreases this week—good news for the budget minded.

Based on the best buys of the week, Marion Rouse Budd, of the A & P Kitchen has prepared the following menus at three price levels:

Low Cost Dinner

Veal Loaf with Tomato Sauce
Baked Potatoes
Cold Slaw
Bread and Butter
Raisin Bread Custard with Lemon Sauce
Tea or Coffee

Medium Cost Dinner

Vegetable Juice
Pot Roast of Beef
Browned Potatoes, Carrots and Onions
Cabbage Green Pepper Rolls
Bread and Butter
Orange Bavarian Cream
Tea or Coffee

Very Special Dinner

St. Ann's and Fifth Ward To Clash in Bristol Basketball League

EAGERLY WATCHED

Win For 'Saints' Would Place
Them in Deadlock With Several Teams

The teams, opposed to each other tonight in the Bristol Basketball League, have been intense rivals for several seasons and close games are expected as Franklin clashes with St. Ann's and Fifth Ward meeting the Voltz-Texaco aggregation. The games will be played on the Mutual Aid floor.

Franklin has won two games to date while St. Ann's have dropped a pair. A win for the Saints will give them a 2 and 2 average and place them in a deadlock with several teams. Franklin played two extra periods to win over Diamond in their last start, while St. Ann's dropped a close one to the Prof's team.

Fifth Ward will be shooting for its fourth straight win against the gasoilers. The Voltz boys have improved immensely in their last two contests and are out to give the Warders plenty of trouble. In the event of a Fifth Ward victory, they will be deadlocked with Prof's for first place and these two clubs are scheduled for next Monday night.

First game gets under way at eight o'clock sharp.

Trans-Arctic Journey By Submarine Told Of

Introduced by Principal Lynn Shatzer, Mr. Riggs told of the expedition acquiring the "sub" from the United States Navy for the sum of $1. Leaving New York the party of 18 men crossed the Atlantic to Spitzbergen, there to outfit the craft for the journey to the Arctic, planning the course from Tromsø, Norway, across the polar basin to Point Barrow, Alaska, and return.

The speaker told of the 50 tons of equipment carried, together with supplies and clothing. The submarine, which was 175 feet in length, carried 60 ton storage batteries. The maximum speed on the surface was given as 14.2 knots per hour, and maximum speed submerged was 10 miles.

That there is more life in the Arctic water than at any other place was one interesting point brought out.

The ice cutter, arranged in a specially-inserted drill from the top of the craft, was told of. Mr. Riggs showed by means of the chart how when the "sub" came to rest under a surface of ice, the cutter would commence operation, the men then making their way to the surface through the drill, for fresh air and sunshine.

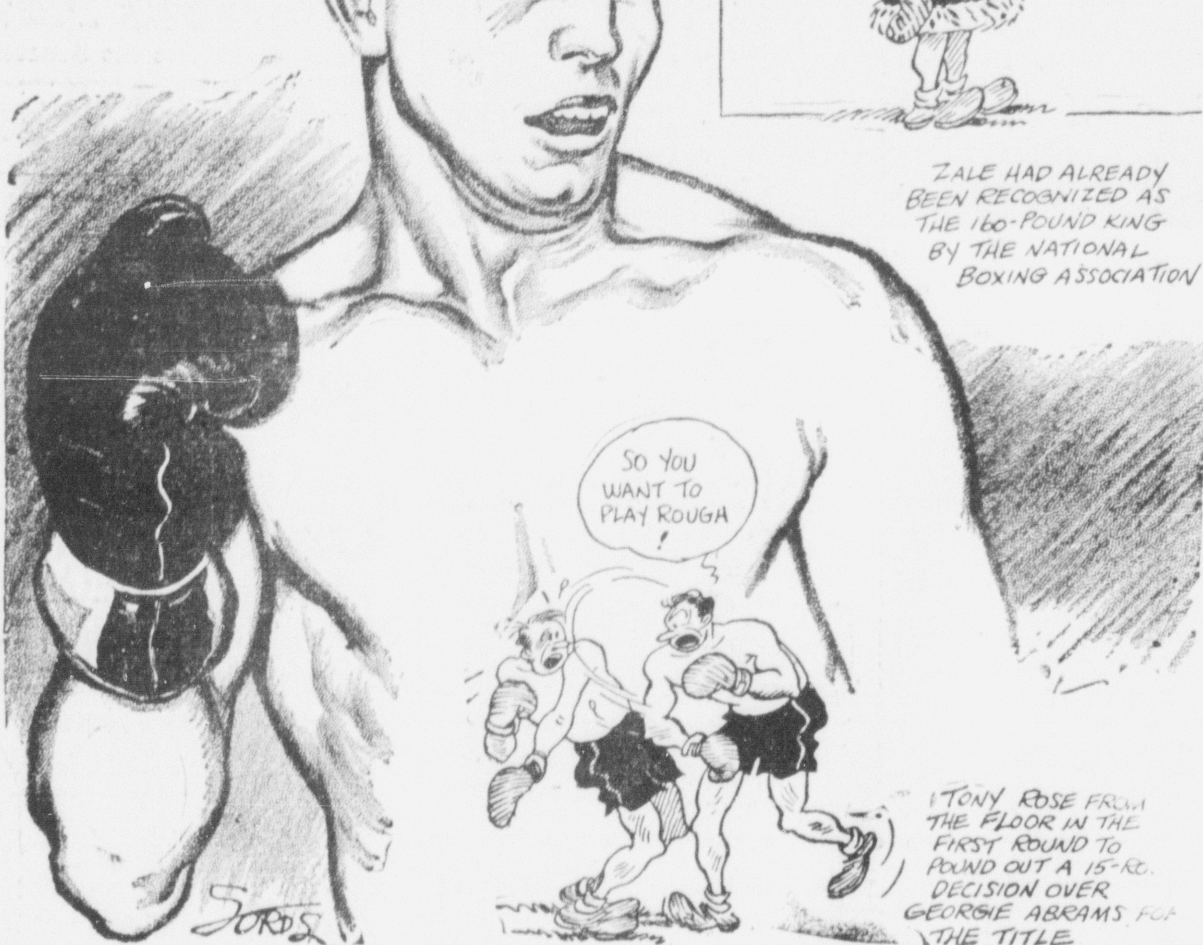

"In exploration, if the chance of returning safely is even, it is considered well worth trying," was one of his statements, he adding that one of his duties was to find "how many things could be done wrong once on a submarine." Mr. Riggs' humorous manner of answering questions and presenting his information, made for a most interesting program. When queried as to how the men kept warm on the journey, he replied, "The Lord gave you your heater."

The expedition started out in June of 1931, returning to Norway in October, although 1 1/2 years was spent in preparing the ship for the trip. The craft could remain submerged for more than 30 hours at a time. How the depth gauges were read to determine thickness of the ice above; the observance of marine life by means of huge search-lights, the gathering of meteorological data, etc., was highly enlightening. The maximum field of ice attempted, he told, was 18 knots across, and at that season of the year the ice averaged eight feet in thickness, although hummocks at many points made for greater thickness. Temperatures ranged from 18 above to five below zero.

Mrs. Joseph Mucklow presided at the business meeting. She called upon the other speaker of the evening, Orville Morris, who answered questions regarding black-outs, and other defense measures.

Miss Dorothy Thuss and Samuel Brehaut gave the secretary's and treasurer's reports. Ned Moyer reported the sum of $91.62 cleared on a recent card party. The attendance award was won by grades two and three.

The P. T. A. arranged to provide a Christmas treat for the pupils, Miss Margaret Perry and Mrs. Rex Hunter being in charge of such.

Later, in the cafeteria, refreshments of a Christmas salad, crackers, coffee, and home-made cookies, were served. Each one present received as a gift from Mrs. Hunter an orange and a cup of pecans, brought by her recently from Florida and Georgia. Christmas decorations were used.

Heats Hot In 90 Seconds By
The Stop Watch

DON'T drive in an "ice box" again this winter, inviting colds and sniffles. Come in today and let us show you the greatest car heater invention you ever saw... the amazing South Wind that heats hot in 90 seconds by the stop watch.

The South Wind is America's fastest-selling quality heater because it gives hot heat while your engine is still cold! It makes its own heat—burns fuel from the carburetor inside a patented sealed chamber, from which all fumes pass out the engine exhaust!

You get real fireside comfort for less per hour than the price of a stick of gum—comfort no other heater at any price can give. Yet the South Wind costs no more than a good ordinary heater. Let us install your South Wind now—before colder days arrive.

New! South Wind "Special"

Identical in principle to the bigger South Wind, the new "Special" is smaller, and costs less, yet gives more heat in shorter time than any other heater except the South Wind itself. See it here.
